WEEK-END TO BE BUSY TIME IN EL PASO SOCIETY; KLOEPFER-EDWARDS WEDDING A LEADING EVENT

THIS weekend is to be a busy one for society, a feature event being the wedding of Miss Nancy Edwards and Lieut. Hans E. Kloepfer, of the Eighth cavalry, which takes place this evening at St. Clement's Episcopal church, to be followed by a reception at the Edwards home on Gold street.

Many of the most interesting affairs of the season have been given to honor the couple. Miss Mary Heermans, who has been on the Pacific coast for the summer, has returned to be one of the bridesmaids, and every detail is ready for the ceremony.

The roof garden of the Teller clubhouse will be opened for the season this evening with a number of 20 Pasosans entertaining at dinner prior to the dancing hours. The Calumet club and Country club members will be guests of the evening, and numerous guests who will motor out for the reception after the Kloepfer-Edwards wedding, will come down for the dancing hours at the Teller.

Mrs. Chalmers D. Horne is giving a tea this afternoon at the Horne quarters in the 8th field artillery to honor Miss Dorothy Baker, who is the guest of Capt. and Mrs. T. Dodson Stamp. Mrs. Stamp's party Saturday morning for Miss Baker was a pretty affair.

The men of the military district with their families, as usual, will enjoy the informal tea on Sunday afternoon at the district service clubhouse at Fort Bliss.

Miss Virginia Morse will entertain at bridge on Monday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Victor Moore.

to honor her guest, Miss Jamie Kerr, of San Antonio.

The Gridiron club of the University club will have the jolliest of evenings on Monday when they give their "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" on the roof garden of the University club, accompanied by a program of informal jolly amusements.

Miss Elizabeth Reaney will entertain the Fort Bliss Bridge club on Tuesday afternoon at the Reaney quarters at Fort Bliss.

For next Friday evening the dance at the University club will be an interesting event. The dance is to be given on the roof garden of the club with a number of interesting features, making it especially attractive. Many other affairs will be added to those already scheduled.

DELEGATION of El Paso business women who will represent the two business clubs of the local Y. W. C. A. at the conference of the association at Estes Park, Colo., in a short time. The dates of the convention are August 6 to 16. Those in the group are: Top, left to right—Elsie Wimber, Edna Harman, Elise Lewis, Bertha Turner and Blanche Campbell. Second row, left to right—Marie Schwartz, Eliza Hunter, Kate King and Jessie Chapin. Front row, left to right—Anna Mae Tierney and Lula Deys.

W. H. Seamon, Jr., lived in El Paso the greater part of his life and before going to an eastern university attended El Paso high school. His bride is the niece of Mrs. Rowland Anderson, of this city, and her father had headquarters in this city for two years while looking after the Quaker interests of Mexico. The Eastern Gazette, of Boston, Mass., of July 12, gives the following account of the wedding:

The marriage of Miss Caroline Frances Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lambdin Hopkins, formerly of Talbot county, now of Lakeland, Fla., and Wm. H. Seamon, Jr., son of Prof. Wm. H. Seamon, of El Paso, Texas, took place at high noon, last Tuesday at Christ P. E. church, St. Michaels, the Rev. Dr. Harry Chesley, pastor officiating. Mrs. Charles Seamon presided at the organ and carried the bride.

The church was thronged with friends and guests. The bride entered the church with her father. The bride was attired in white crepe de chine with hat to match and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Seamon home on the Chesapeake, the home of the bride's uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Seamon were seated in pink and white. The bride's bridesmaids were Mrs. M. G. Lowe. After returning from a brief trip through the south, Mr. and Mrs. Seamon will reside at 1212 Lake, Ontario, Canada, where Mr. Seamon is engaged in charge for American mining interests.

In a protest against the high cost of clothing, Miss Elsie Southgate, England's famous violinist, will appear in overalls at all her future engagements.

A moonlight picnic with a congenial crowd is lots of fun. There will be a full moon on July 28th. Use our Big Right-Seeling Car to take the whole crowd out for a "jolly good time." The car is roomy, comfortable and safe. There is a trailer to carry refreshments. Call 1840 for rates and particulars.

Miss Lucille Crenshaw Entertains C. J. Club Members At Matinee Party

MISS LUCILLE CRENSHAW is entertaining the members of the C. J. Bridge club and a few additional guests this afternoon with a matinee party at the Rialto theater.

After the matinee the Crenshaw and her guests will enjoy a party at the Rialto, where they will be seated on the balcony. The tables are decorated with Shasta daisies and tea molded in the shape of corn on the cob will be served.

Those who are enjoying the afternoon at the two parties are members of the club, Misses Jean Gilchrist, J. Bridge club and a few additional guests this afternoon with a matinee party at the Rialto theater.

After the matinee the Crenshaw and her guests will enjoy a party at the Rialto, where they will be seated on the balcony. The tables are decorated with Shasta daisies and tea molded in the shape of corn on the cob will be served.

The young people of the senior department of Trinity Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a party in the church annex on Thursday evening.

A short business session, presided over by the superintendent of the department, was held, in which the department was organized and officers elected for the quarter. Miss Annie Laurie Pione was elected president and Hawkins Golden, secretary and treasurer, and committee for the quarter were appointed. Monthly meetings of the department will be held.

Informal games, arranged by Mrs. Rowena Davis and Miss Ruby Carruth were enjoyed and popular musical numbers added to the evening's pleasure. Garden flowers were used in decoration and an ice course was served by Misses Ferguson and Lucy Kane, assisted by Miss Pearl Fossard and Mrs. W. A. Trayler.

Sarah Hardie entertained at the family home on Friday afternoon with a luncheon party in honor of her guest, Norma Heffler, who is down from Glendhurst for a visit. Yellow daisies were used in decoration and tea and cake were served at the conclusion of the games. The guests included Norma Heffler, Elmer Irwin, who won first prize, Della Quaid, Grace Bischoff, Mary Laws, Katherine Pione, Anna Hawley, Ethel Irene Howe, Mary Wilson, Bertha Riley, Francis and Le-Bron Hardie. The honor guest was presented with a guest prize.

The members of White Rose lodge No. 222 of the women's auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen gave Mrs. Lucille Crenshaw a surprise party on Wednesday evening at Mrs. Hollard's home on Noble street, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Lucille Crenshaw had charge of the arrangements. During the evening watermelon was served on the lawn. About 40 guests were present.

The Russian class of the First Baptist Sunday school, composed of young women, will enjoy a swimming party on Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A. clubhouse. Following the swimming party a moonlight picnic will be served on the roof of the clubhouse.

El Pasoans Returning.

Rev. P. B. Knickerbocker has returned from his vacation on the Pacific coast. His family has also returned from their trip to the south.

Sarah Bernhardt, the noted French actress, who is now past 24 years of age, will soon publish the story of her first romance.

Mrs. H. A. Schumacher Gives Dinner Honoring Miss Edwards and Fiance

MRS. HENRY A. SCHUMACHER entertained with a buffet dinner on Friday evening at the Schumacher home on Hampden street in compliment to Miss Nancy Edwards and her fiancé, Lieut. Hans E. Kloepfer, following their wedding rehearsal at St. Clement's Episcopal church.

The reception suite of the Schumacher home was fragrant with flowers of the season and a color motif of pink and white was featured. An archway of English ivy was formed between the doors from the drawing room to dining room and from the arch suspended a great white wedding veil. From the veil the guests drew favors attached to streamers of white satin ribbons, and the bell clapper, a silver tea ball, was presented to Miss Edwards.

The table for the supper service was exquisitely dainty in its pink and white tints with cover of hand drawn linen over pink satin. The table was centered with a green variegated vase of white carnations and tall silver candleholders held burning white candles.

The guests present were Miss Edwards, Lieut. Kloepfer, their wedding party and a few additional guests, the list including Misses Minna Edwards, Virginia Dean, Phyllis Loree, Virginia Horne, her guest, Jamie Kerr, of San Antonio, Mary Heermans, Mary Hardie and her guest, Frances Carter, of Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Peyton J. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Pettus, Mr. and Mrs. David Mayfield, Nancy Pettus, David Mayfield, Jr., Capt. W. D. Van Ocha, Lieut. Lawrence A. Patterson, Lieut. L. W. Shaffer, Lieut. G. B. Shomber, Lieut. T. D. Tompkins, Capt. Arthur Underwood, Lieut. Reynolds, Mrs. Schumacher's mother, Mrs. John S. Akin, of New York City, Mrs. H. H. Stewart and Mrs. A. S. Valdespino.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McClanahan entertained with a dinner party on Thursday evening at their home on Lohannon street to honor Mr. and Mrs. S. Dale Horne of Dallas, who formerly lived in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Horne are here for a visit to the latter's mother, Mrs. J. K. Elias, at her home on North St. Vrain. The hosts were assisted in the hospitality of the evening by Mrs. McClanahan's mother, Mrs. George W. Kitchens. Yellow and white were the tints chosen for decoration, featured with Shasta daisies centering the table. Candles, favors and confections were in the same tints. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Horne, Miss Elmer Rogers, W. E. Kitchens, Mrs. G. W. Kitchens and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Chalmers D. Horne is entertaining at tea this afternoon at the Chalmers quarters in the 2nd field artillery garrison to compliment Miss Dorothy Baker, of Denison, Texas, who is the guest of Mrs. T. Dodson Stamp.

Automobiling and Outings.

Washington park was the scene Thursday night of a very enjoyable picnic given by the Clerks' union, to which the carriers, their wives, relatives and friends were invited.

Ex-postmaster J. A. Smith, held in high esteem by his former employees, was present as a guest of honor.

To offset the slight discomfort of the heat, ice cold lemonade and lemonade offered a pleasing remedy that none were slow to accept, but in the case of the mosquitoes there was no suitable antidote available.

Full Moon July 26th.

It's time now to plan for a big, jolly moonlight picnic with the whole crowd along. Our Big Right-Seeling Car will carry the crowd safely and comfortably and there's a trailer to carry the refreshments.

Excess of natural oil is a common ailment of the hair. Rich and heavy food aggravates the cause. Improper functioning of the intestines is the commonest cause of all and the person who wishes fine hair must keep the inside of the body, as well as the outside, scrupulously clean, by intelligent exercise and dieting. Systematic dry massage is very helpful. Mexican Herb Hair Tonic, properly and carefully applied, will do a great deal toward removing this trouble. Washing dry hair should be done very carefully. A great deal of hot water should be used to dissolve thoroughly the oily accretions, usually accompanied by sandruff scales. When the condition is removed by washing and massage and the use of a scalp stimulating tonic little trouble will ensue and the hair will soon become normal.
